State Reporting is a vital but dysfunctional part of the protection of human rights. On the occasion of the UN General Assembly review of the treaty body system in 2020, Jule Giegling assesses in her new book the state reporting obligation in the UN and in regional human rights systems, identifies deficiencies and proposes an innovative solution in the form of Integrative Reporting. After an introduction by Pierre Thielbörger, Jule Giegling presents her main theses which are then commented on by the two discussants Isabella Risini and JP Graf. This event is part of the IFHV's Cluster on Human Rights and Humanitarian Protection.
